

Dr T.O. CHAN

Tai On (T.O.) Chan is currently Principal Spatial Policy Officer, responsible for the spatial policy and research matters in the Department of Sustainability and Environment, State Government of Victoria, Australia. He is currently the Project Leader for the CRCSI demonstrator called PEMS. He had a degree in Biology and in Forestry. From 1983-94, he worked for the Hong Kong Government as a Forestry Officer with responsibilities of planning, conservation, management and training inside country parks. He obtained his PhD at the University of Melbourne in 1999. His professional and research interests are in planning, management and implementation of spatial information systems and spatial data infrastructures.

