

Dr CHRIS PETTIT

Dr Pettit is the Statewide Leader - Spatial Sciences, within the Department of Primary Industries Victoria and Senior Research Associate, RMIT University. Dr Pettit has an international track record in the area of urban and regional planning and spatial decision support systems. Dr Pettit is the Associate Editor for the International Journal - Applied Spatial Analysis and Policy and is the scientific secretary for the ISPRS WG II/4 on Spatial Planning and Decision Support Systems. Dr Pettit has published over 50 peer reviewed book chapter, journal conference papers over the last 10 years. He has participated in more than 20 International conferences in a range of capacities including keynote speaker, conference organiser (Place and Purpose), session organiser, session chair and presenter. Dr Pettit is the author to the ESRI International online course "Introduction to urban and regional planning using ArcGIG" where more than 9000 students from around the world have registered or completed.

